Travel Days

Day Description	Images
Day 1: Arrival in Antananarivo Your first day in Madagascar will begin with your arrival in the capital city of Antananarivo. Upon landing at Ivato Airport, our team will be there to greet you and transfer you to your accommodation at Villa Sibylle. If you have any specific food or drink preferences for your arrival, please let us know in advance so we can make arrangements accordingly. Let us take care of the details while you relax and enjoy your stay in Madagascar!

Day Description	Images
Day 2: Journey from Antananarivo to Antsirabe On the second day of your 14-day journey through Madagascar, you will travel from the capital Antananarivo to Antsirabe. The drive will take you through the bustling suburbs of the capital, then through Behenjy and Ambatolampy. You will have a lunch break in one of these two towns, where you can enjoy a meal at one of the local restaurants. After lunch, you will continue on to Antsirabe, an important economic hub in Madagascar. The journey from Antananarivo to Antsirabe is approximately 170 kilometers long and offers stunning landscapes along the way. Antsirabe itself is known for its charming colonial villas and European flair. You will stay at the Chambres du Voyageur hotel, where you may be able to spot chameleons and radiant tortoises in the garden.

Day 3: Drive from Antsirabe to Ranomafana via Ambositra On the third day of the trip, you will have the opportunity to visit an exciting reforestation project where orange trees are cultivated for reforestation purposes. Afterwards, we will drive directly to the nearby town of Ambositra, known for its artistic wood carvings made from precious woods. After lunch, we head to Ranomafana National Park. During the drive, you will once again witness breathtaking landscapes and a lush green vegetation. In the evening, you can relax with a soothing dip in a thermal swimming pool before spending the night at the Hotel des Thermes.

Day 4: Visit to Ranomafana National Park On the fourth day of your Madagascar tour, the Ranomafana National Park is the destination. This park covers over 40,000 hectares and is located at an altitude of around 1,300 meters above sea level. Various species of lemurs, insects, birds, frogs, and reptiles call the mountain rainforest home, and with some luck, you may come across some particularly spectacular specimens to capture on camera. The specific activities during your day at Ranomafana National Park will be tailored to your individual preferences and fitness level. You will spend the night at the Hotel des Thermes, where you can relax after the day's extraordinary adventures.

Day 5: Drive from Ranomafana to Ambalavao via Fianarantsoa After the exciting guided tours of Ranomafana National Park, the journey through Madagascar continues on the fifth day of the trip. You will pass through many small villages where you can get a glimpse of the lifestyles of the Malagasy people, and through extraordinary landscapes that change rapidly. In Fianarantsoa, we will take a break, giving you the opportunity to explore the city and, if desired, observe an internationally renowned photographer at work. Then, we head southward. As you look out the window during this stretch, you will discover massive granite rocks, blood-red laterite soils, and increasingly sparse grass – clear signs that the southern part of Madagascar is getting closer. Upon arrival in Ambalavao, you have various options available. Visiting a nearby village where we have been implementing a project for a drinking water well for over ten years is one possible stop, as is the local zebu market, which is always a real spectacle. The overnight stay on this evening will

Day 6: From Ambalavao to Ranohira to Isalo National Park The sixth day begins with a hike in a private reserve called Anja Park. This reserve covers about three hectares and is home to numerous lemurs eagerly awaiting your visit with their lively personalities. In addition to lemurs, you can also discover various reptiles, burial caves, and spiritual gathering places of the Betsileo ethnic group in Anja Park. After the hike, we will continue our journey by car heading south. By afternoon, we are expected to arrive in Ranohira. This stop leads us to the Isalo National Park, our destination for the following day. Initially, we will enjoy a comfortable overnight stay at the Isalo Rock Lodge (4*).

Day Description	Images
Day 7: Isalo National Park On the seventh day, you will visit one of the most famous national parks in Madagascar, the Isalo National Park. This park features a massive mountain range where granite and sandstone sculptures alternate with waterfalls and tropical nature. Covering over 80,000 hectares of land, the park offers a maximum of landscape diversity. The difficulty level and length of the tour through the park are tailored to your personal preferences and physical condition. After an exciting day trip, you will spend the night at the Isalo Rock Lodge (4*).
