Day 4: From Antsirabe to Ambatofinandrahana Distance: 100 miles (160 km) on asphalt and dirt roads After a restful night's sleep, you depart Antsirabe at sunrise heading south. You will travel on Route Nationale 7 (RN7) until Ivato-Centre, then veer off the main road onto dirt roads at the foot of the Itremo Mountains. Your off-road adventure in Madagascar begins now! Day 5: From Ambatofinandrahana to Morondava Distance: 236 miles (380 km) on laterite, sand, and asphalt Early rising will soon be rewarded with beautiful mountain trails. The gates to the great West open before you as you cross the mountains of Itremo and its highest pass at over 2000 m. The descent to the West Coast offers pilots spectacular landscapes off the beaten path. Dinner and overnight stay at the Kimony Lodge Hotel in Morondava.

Day 6: From Morondava to Kirindy Distance: 51 km on sand Embark on a short but intense journey through the sand of the famous Baobab Avenue, passing by majestic, ancient baobab trees. Day Description	Images
Day 7: From Morondava to Manja Route length: 68 miles (110 km) on sand Embark on one of the most intense stages of the tour starting from Morondava in the morning. The day kicks off with an impressive crossing of the Kabatomena River, which is over 50 meters wide. The route then takes you through a bush landscape to the salt lake of Belo. Crossing the salt lake can be challenging or even impossible during high tide. Our journey continues through the wilderness to the finish line in Manja. The only hotel in town may not offer much, but it provides a pleasant and relaxing retreat after the challenging stage in deep sand. Enjoy dinner and an overnight stay at Hotel Kanto.

Day 8: From Manja to Andavadoaka Distance: 136 miles (220 km) on laterite and sand Embark on a challenging day of motorcycling as we navigate various terrains with different technical requirements: sometimes sandy, sometimes hard laterite with termite mounds, and sometimes rocky tracks. Take in the savannah landscape with massive baobab trees and euphorbias stretching to the banks of the Mangoky River. Cross the river on a ferry and continue on to Andavadoaka. Enjoy dinner and overnight stay at Hotel Manga Lodge.

Day 9: From Andavadoaka to Salary Distance: 43 miles (70 km) on sand This is the shortest leg on one of Madagascar's most challenging routes. Along a stunning coastline dotted with baobab trees, you'll find the largest and most pristine sandy beaches imaginable. There's no room for stopping along the way, or you'll get stuck in the deep sand. Focus and technique are essential. You'll be able to relax and unwind in the evening. Dinner and overnight stay at Salary Bay Hotel.

Day 10: From Salary to Tulear Distance: 62 miles (100 km) on sand and laterite The track widens as we encounter huge bush trucks transporting people, cotton, and other goods on overflowing platforms. Today, you will have to drive more slowly: it's market day in many villages we pass through. You'll need to use the horn more often to get through. Large sand dunes signal our arrival at the coast. When you arrive in the fishing village of Ifaty, you can relax on the beach before reaching Tulear as our final destination. Dinner and overnight stay at Hotel Moringa.

Day Description	Images
Day 11: From Tulear to Antananarivo (Domestic flight) A taxi will pick you up from the hotel and take you directly to the airport. This marks the end of our services, as the motorcycles will be returned in Tulear. Of course, we can offer extension tours or additional services in Antananarivo until your return flight, and we can also handle bookings for domestic flights if needed.
