Kayaking In Madagascar - Boat Tour On The Faraony River

Offer ID: UAM-39

Length of Time: 3

Price from: 720 €

The Faraony River is not only popular among foreign tourists looking to enjoy a canoe trip, but it also exerts a magnetic attraction on many Malagasy people. However, this is not necessarily because they enjoy a trip on the river, but because the Faraony houses some truly valuable treasures. Explore the beauty of the Faraony River on Tag Day!

Travel Days

Day Description	Images

Day 1 - Journey to Manampatrana

Your journey begins in Sahambavy, where we recommend a stay at the wonderful Lac Hotel.

The breakfast at this hotel is the first point of your travel plan and will provide you with the energy needed for the day ahead. You will now embark on a very special train ride that will take approximately half a day to reach Manampatrana.

There, you will find the Faraony River winding its way through numerous rice fields.

As the train continues southward, you will quickly be enveloped by the impressive atmosphere of the place. A sense of peace and relaxation fills the air, which is hard to put into words.

You will now board the canoes and navigate through some gentle rapids, classified as Class I and II.

After a leisurely ride, the camp will be set up by the riverbank where you will be treated to a delicious and freshly prepared meal.

Day 2: The Adventure on the Faraony Begins

The second day of this small tour through Madagascar is all about canoeing and is spent almost entirely on the water.

Numerous beaches and wonderful rock formations line the shores, offering countless breathtaking photo opportunities.

You will then reach the Onilahy River. Throughout this day, you will encounter many friendly locals, who may occasionally cause an unplanned stop.

Enjoy the pleasant atmosphere of ease and relaxation before spending the night once again in a camp on a sandbank.

Day 3: Heading to Mahabako Train Station

On the third day of the boat tour, you will travel on the river to the Mahabako Train Station, where the tour ends.

From here, the river would become much more challenging for inexperienced canoeists as it gets wilder before flowing into the Indian Ocean.

Planning is required for the train journey onwards, as the train does not run every day. Therefore, you should not embark on this tour on a whim, but rely on our experience and knowledge.

In the evening, you will arrive in Manakara, from where you can embark on further trips and tours.

However, the services of this tour package end in Manakara.

Facts & Figures

Facts and Figures about this Boat Day

Our various tours and travel packages are planned not only with great attention to detail, but also with the aim of providing you with maximum transparency.

We strive to make your vacation in Madagascar an experience that will stay with you for a long time. Therefore, we do not want to burden you with hidden costs, but rather show you what is already included in the price we have quoted and where you may need to cover additional costs on your own.

3-day Boat Day on the Faraony	Price per person
2 to 3 guests	€890
4 to 5 guests	€850
6 to 7 guests	€790
8 to 9 guests	€750
10 guests or more	€720

Services

Services

Included in the base price:

Complete logistics and guidance by an English-speaking tour guide

Four-wheel drive vehicle with driver and diesel

Accommodation throughout the tour

Full board including breakfast, lunch, and dinner

Canoes and related equipment

Camping gear

Train ride at the beginning and end of the tour (if the train is running)

Not included in the base price:

Extension tours

Drinks

Tips

Flights