Travel Days

Day Description	Images
Day 1: Arrival in Antananarivo Our team will greet you directly upon your arrival at Ivato International Airport and transport you to your hotel. Villa Sibylle is a private guesthouse located near the airport, surrounded by a tropical garden. Relax after your flight and enjoy your first dinner in Madagascar with an overnight stay.

Day Description	Images
Day 2: Antananarivo - Ambohimanga - Antananarivo Route Length: 74 miles (120 km) on laterite and asphalt In the morning, you will meet your tour guide and take a first look at your enduro bike. During the first ride, you will leave the busy streets of "Tana" (as Antananarivo is called by the locals) for a ride off the main road on laterite terrain. You will cross the red and green hills of the island and visit the UNESCO World Heritage site of Ambohimanga, the ancient capital of the Merina Kingdom. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day Description	Images
Day 3: Antananarivo – Anjozorobe Distance: 62 miles (100 km) on Laterite On the second day of the Highland Tour, you will pass through rice fields and forests with traditional villages and typical local architecture. You will journey through fascinating landscapes with the Tampoketsa mountain range in the background as you make your way to Anjozorobe. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day Description	Images
Day 4: Anjozorobe – Andilamena Distance: 124 miles (200 km) on Laterite roads Leave the hills and forests of the Highlands in the morning and head towards the wetlands surrounding Lake Alaotra, the largest inland lake in Madagascar. This area is known as the "rice bowl" of the island, as it is the largest rice-growing region. Overnight stay at a hotel.

Day Description	Images
Day 5: Andilamena – Mandritsara This will be a challenging and solitary day: you will drive alone through the undergrowth and vast savannas. Even the participants of the Camel Trophy had to turn back in 1987 because there were no bridges in sight. Your entire experience will be put to the test. Take good care of yourself. Overnight stay at the hotel.	 A photograph showing a motorcyclist in the foreground, riding on a dirt road. The road is reddish-brown and appears to be in a dry, arid region with sparse vegetation. In the background, there are large, rolling hills and mountains. A small group of people, including children, are standing on the side of the road, watching the motorcycle pass. The sky is clear with some clouds.

Day 6: Mandritsara – Antsakabary Distance: 99 miles (160 km) on Laterite and Asphalt roads After a few kilometers on asphalt, the track leads onto Laterite roads along the river, surrounded by rice fields and mountain peaks. Crossing several rivers along the way, you will reach the destination of Antsakabary, where you will be warmly welcomed by the local population. Accommodation with the locals.

Day 7: Antsakabary – Andapa Distance: 86 miles (140 kilometers) on Laterite After breakfast, you will face one of the most intense and impressive sections of the route. You will cross rivers and eventually reach the pristine rainforest of Anjanaharibe. Please respect the rules of the nature reserve and do not disturb the balance of the fauna and flora. At the end of the day, you will arrive in Andapa and return to civilization. Overnight stay at a hotel.

Day Description	Images
Day 8: Andapa – Vohemar Distance: 118 miles (190 km) on sand, laterite, and asphalt roads Today's road stage takes you from the mountain ranges to the beaches of the Vanilla Coast. After visiting Sambava, the "Vanilla Capital," you will reach the seaport of Vohemar. The town was founded by Islamic seafarers from Arabia. Take a trip from here to the "Green Lake," named for its algae population. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day Description	Images
Day 9: Vohemar – Antsaravibe Distance: 118 miles (190 km) on sand and laterite roads In the morning, you will drive on a beautiful route through the savannah from east to west. Next, a short stretch on sandy roads through sugarcane and cashew nut plantations. Ahead lies the 400 million-year-old Ankarana Massif with deep canyons and forests. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day Description	Images
Day 10: Antsaravibe - Diego Suarez Distance: 80 miles (130 km) on laterite and asphalt After a hearty breakfast, depart Antsaravibe and head towards the Ankarana mountain range. Drive through winding, hilly roads, passing by sugarcane and mango plantations while enjoying spectacular views. Before arriving in Diego, visit the sacred crocodiles in Lake Anivorano, believed to house the souls of ancestors. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Day Description	Images
Day 11: Diego Suarez – La Montagne des Français Distance: 31 miles (50 km) on sand and asphalt Experience a short but impressive day: Discover the "Sugarloaf" of Diego Suarez, a small island in the middle of the bay. After driving along the dunes, you will pass through the small fishing village of Ramena and reach the "three bays" of Diego with white beaches and crystal-clear water. Overnight stay at the hotel.

Facts & Figures

Concept

Our motorcycle tours are personally tailored to your wishes and expectations, with prices calculated according to the final route and selected accommodations.

Madagascar's road network is very limited, but it showcases the essentials. The National Route 7 is considered one of the most beautiful roads in the world.

The low density of paved roads has created an exceptional network of routes.

As large as France and Belgium combined, every city, every village is connected by a stretch or path of several kilometers...

So yes, Madagascar is to motorcycling what Hawaii is to surfing: an absolute hotspot!

Our French-Malagasy team, composed of motorcycle guides and specialized mechanics, will share their passion for this country with you.
