You will cover a total of about 130 kilometers to Daraina on the challenging track before arriving at the camp before lunch. There, you can enjoy a delicious lunch in the bay and take in the breathtaking views. Next, you will head south towards Sambava, located about 180 kilometers away. Along the way, there will be a quick stop at the green Lake of Andranotsara. The fascinating color of this lake will captivate you with its mystical allure. The lake, with its impressive color play resulting from the mix of fresh and saltwater, is home to numerous crocodiles. These crocodiles are considered sacred animals by the locals, as they are believed to be reincarnations of ancestors in the traditional belief.

Day 3: Heading to Marojejy National Park On the third day of your journey, the long-awaited adventure is right at your doorstep. You will start early in the morning by car, heading up to the mountains to Mandena where the entrance to Marojejy National Park is located. This park is one of the most impressive and less explored protected areas on the island, showcasing a unique rainforest that is rare to find on Earth today. Despite the damages caused by logging and poaching in recent years, the spectacle of the dense, green foliage is still spectacular and breathtaking. However, hiking through the park requires a certain level of physical fitness, as the trails are wet and slippery, and the high humidity adds an extra challenge. It is recommended to wear rain gear for this trip as it almost constantly drizzles in Marojejy National Park. The journey into the unique natural paradise of Marojejy begins around 8:30 AM and it is uphill from the start.

Day 4: More Adventures in Marojejy National Park. Day 4 of your journey holds a lot of challenges for you. Next, you will ascend even higher to reach the highest point of the National Park, the Summit Mountain. At an altitude of over 2,100 meters, you will marvel at the surrounding landscape and experience an uplifting atmosphere that you will never forget. Afterwards, you will return to Camp Marojejia for another night's rest.

For your overnight stay, you can choose between the Hotel Orchidea Beach or the Soaland Apartments once again.

Day 6: Day trip to Antalaha Start your day with a delicious breakfast before driving towards Antalaha. Once in Antalaha, you have the afternoon free to spend as you wish until dinner. We recommend a visit to a project for former leprosy patients, which is both educational and impactful. Tonight, enjoy dinner and stay at the beautiful Ocean Momo Hotel, located right by the sea.
