Day Description	Images
Day 1: Arrival in Antananarivo On the first day, your journey begins with your arrival in Madagascar. We will pick you up from Ivato Airport in the capital city of Antananarivo and take you to your accommodation at Villa Sibylle. If you have any special requests for meals or drinks upon your arrival, please let us know in advance so we can make arrangements for you.	 A photograph of a grand, multi-story building with a clock tower, likely the Villa Sibylle in Antananarivo, Madagascar. The building is constructed of light-colored stone or brick and features numerous arched windows and a prominent clock tower on the left side. The sky is bright blue with scattered white clouds. In the foreground, there is a grassy area and a small, traditional-looking structure with a thatched roof. The image is credited to Pierre Koval.

Day Description

Day 2: Drive from Antananarivo to Antsirabe

On the second day of your 14-day journey through Madagascar, you will travel from the capital Antananarivo to Antsirabe. The drive takes you through the lively suburbs of the capital, then through Behenjy and Ambatolampy. You will stop for lunch in one of these two places and enjoy a meal at one of the local restaurants. After that, you will continue to Antsirabe, an important economic hub in Madagascar. The journey from Antananarivo to Antsirabe is approximately 170 kilometers and is lined with exciting landscapes. Antsirabe itself impresses with its attractive colonial villas and European look. You will be staying at the Chambres du Voyageur hotel, where you may be able to spot numerous chameleons and even radiated tortoises in the garden.
