Two lakes are on the agenda: Lake Andraikiba and then Lake Tritriva. Both can be easily reached on well-maintained and comfortable roads.

Lake Tritriva is situated on a volcanic cone and has turquoise, slightly acidic water with no fish living in it. The volcanic cone provides an ideal platform to admire not only the breathtakingly beautiful water of the lake, but also to get a spectacular view of the surroundings.

The highland landscape is colorful and vibrant, offering excellent photo opportunities. You will then travel through the countryside on narrow tracks to Betafo.

A short hike is recommended there to explore the area on foot. The return journey will be by car, making the total distance for this third day

Day Description

Day 5: From Ambositra to Ranomafana

Start your fifth day in Ambositra with the support vehicle to shorten today's route a bit.

The route takes you through remote villages and fascinating landscapes until you finally reach the Ranomafana National Park.

This national park, also known as the mountain rainforest, will immediately captivate you with its fascinating flora and fauna, and after about 25 kilometers you will reach Ranomafana.

The route will now mainly take you downhill until you reach the Grenat Hotel, which welcomes you for tonight's accommodation.

Afterward, you will be welcomed back at the Grenat Hotel with its comfortable beds.

Here, you will find a tea plantation and the Lac Hotel.

Enjoy a breathtaking view of a lake and spend the night in one of the cozy bungalows.

Accommodation is scheduled for the evening.

In the afternoon, you can visit the Sahambavy Tea Plantation and learn about the local production process.

Alternatively, we can suggest other activities for your afternoon.

On the eighth day of your Madagascar adventure, you will start the day in the support vehicle as usual.

Exploring Fianarantsoa will be done on bicycles, before continuing on to Ambalavao, 53 kilometers away.

The landscape along the way becomes increasingly rocky, with some wine-growing regions lining the path on both sides.

Ambalavao itself is a charming small town, and the Tsienimparihy Lodge extends a warm welcome to you here.

Day Description

Day 9: From Ambalavao to Tsaranoro

On the ninth day, you leave Ambalavao behind and head south.

You will travel about 12 kilometers over a rocky pass that offers breathtaking views.

A small village community will greet you on your way, and a local guide will accompany you to a privately managed nature reserve where many lemurs and chameleons call home.

Continuing on with your bike, the landscape gradually transforms into a savannah dotted with granite rocks.

This section of the route is mainly downhill, and the paved road makes for a very pleasant ride.

After a while, you will turn off into the Tsaranoro Valley and face a 20-kilometer stretch that will take you to the Tsaranoro Mountains and the Tsaraso Lodge, where a comfortable night's rest awaits you.

Day Description

Day 10: A hike in the Tsaranoro Mountain Range

Today, leave your bikes behind and head straight to the Pic Chamäleon after breakfast.

The ascent will take about two hours and is manageable even with average fitness levels.

Once you reach the top, you will be rewarded with a breathtaking view of the spectacular mountain landscape.

You can choose to either have a camping overnight stay on the mountain or return to the Camp Catta Lodge where you can enjoy a bit more comfort.

Day 11: From Tsaranoro to Ranohira

Start your day with a bike ride on a paved road for the first stage.

Head to Ankaramena, where you can enjoy some of the local specialties, such as sweet mango and papaya fruits.

Afterwards, hop back on the support vehicle and travel through Ihosy to Ranohira.

In the afternoon, as you cross the vast Horombe Plateau, consider biking a few kilometers to fully appreciate the spectacular landscape.

Next, you'll reach the foot of the Isalo National Park and the Islo Rock Lodge * hotel, where you'll be staying for the night.

Some luxury and comfort are key after a challenging day.
