Beheloka is a village near the Tsimanampetsotsa Lake, the only saltwater lake in the country located in the eponymous nature reserve.	 A photograph showing several motorcyclists, including a prominent one with a white helmet and a red bike with the number 3, parked on a sandy beach. In the background, a group of children are playing on the sand, and a coastal town is visible under a blue sky with scattered clouds.

Day Description

Day 2: From Beheloka to Androka

Enjoy a 110 km journey on sandy tracks from Beheloka to Androka on this beautiful day.

Venture into the deep south towards Androka, a fishing village located at Cape Andriamanao.

Explore the remote and sparsely populated area, with sandy tracks, cacti, dazzling white beaches, and blue lagoons along the Mozambique Channel.

Day Description

Day 3 - Androka / Lavanono

Day stage: 100 km

As the kilometers add up, the landscape becomes more and more bewildering, far away from the hustle and bustle of the cities.

You will arrive in one of the southernmost villages of the country.

Here, there are far more radiated tortoises than people roaming around.

Day Description

Day 4 - Lavanono (free day)

Enjoy a free day in Lavanono: start your morning with a seafood meal, relax on dream beaches, and admire the turquoise sea as far as the eye can see.

Excursions to Cap Sainte Marie are possible and highly recommended, as the landscape there is indescribable - it's the end of the country, with nothing but the deep blue sea stretching all the way to Antarctica, no artificial lights at night, and no flight routes crossing the sky.

Day Description

Day 5 - Lavanono / Itampolo

Day 5 itinerary covers approximately 120 km.

Today we head north towards Itampolo, a town located in the heart of Salapaly Bay.

Enjoy a beautiful, deserted coral beach, lagoon, and absolute tranquility to relax after the journey.

Make the most of your stay by soaking in the peaceful surroundings and rejuvenating your senses before continuing on your adventure.

Day Description

Day 6 - Itampolo / Anakao

Stage of 130 km

From Itampolo, you will drive to Anakao, a Vezo village with beaches lined with coral reefs, an ideal place for diving and relaxation.

Anakao has good beach hotels and it is the first stage with comfort. Enjoy the beautiful surroundings and the warm hospitality of the locals.

Day Description

Day 7 - Anakao / Tulear

Final leg of 50 km

Drive back to Tulear on the last day.

Return of the motorcycles and either a flight back to Antananarivo or an extension tour.
