Day 1: Arrival in Antananarivo Our team welcomes you directly upon your arrival at Ivato International Airport and takes you to your hotel. Villa Sibylle is a private guesthouse located near the airport, surrounded by a tropical garden. Relax from your flight and enjoy your first dinner in Madagascar with an overnight stay there.	 A photograph of a modern, open-air lounge area. The furniture consists of grey wicker armchairs and a matching ottoman, all accented with bright green cushions. The seating is arranged on a deck made of light blue and white square tiles. The lounge is enclosed by a dark blue metal frame with large glass panels, offering a clear view of a lush tropical garden. A prominent feature in the garden is a large, dark baobab tree. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

Day Description

Day 2: From Antananarivo to Ampefy

Distance: 100 miles (160 km) on asphalt and dirt roads

It's time to meet your motorcycle and your guide.

Get ready for your first ride: leaving the bustling and somewhat chaotic streets of Antananarivo, you'll ride on a good road between majestic mountains and rice fields heading west.

Along the way, you can visit the fascinating Lemur Park. Around Ampefy, you'll have the opportunity to discover the Itasy Lake, volcanoes, geysers, and waterfalls. Dinner and overnight stay at the Farihy Hotel.

Day Description

Day 3: From Ampefy to Antsirabe

Distance: 93 miles (150 km) on asphalt and dirt roads

On the third Day, you will experience the unique thrill of driving on both roads and dirt tracks.

You will pass through beautiful landscapes with rice fields dotted with a variety of villages featuring typical architecture. After this long journey, you will arrive in Antsirabe in the afternoon. Antsirabe is the highest city in the country, sitting at around 1600 meters above sea level.

The city is home to beautiful lakes of volcanic origin. Dinner and overnight stay at the Hotel Chambres du Voyageur.

Day Description

Day 4: From Antsirabe to Miandrivazo

Day trip of 224 km of Asphalt roads

After reaching the highest point of this tour on the highlands, you will begin your descent towards the west coast.

The temperature rises quickly as you continue, just 220 km from Antsirabe, the highest city in the country, you will reach Miandrivazo.

This city is known as one of the hottest in the country.

Here, the Mahajilo river flows by, later becoming the Tsiribihina river, one of the most important rivers in Madagascar.

Day Description

Day 5 - Miandrivazo to Morondava

Day trip of 286 km of asphalt roads

On this day, you will head to the first coastal town on the Mozambique Channel, Morondava.

The landscape of high plateaus gives way to arid steppes, dotted here and there with the first baobab trees of the road trip.

After that, we will continue on the well-maintained highway through a savannah-like landscape down to Morondava, where we will arrive in the afternoon.

Located right by the sea, Morondava is the center of the Sakalava tribe of Menabé.

Day Description

Day 6 - Morondava - Bekopaka

Day Stage of 200 km Track

This day on 100% track takes you through the famous Baobab Alley and the Kirindy Reserve to Bakopaka, a stopover before the Tsingy of Bemaraha.

Continue to Tsimafana, then cross the Tsiribihina River by ferry to Belo sur Tsiribihina.

Continue to Bekopaka on mostly sandy track, through dry forest, savannah, and occasional sightings of Baobab trees.

Just before arriving in Bekopaka, a short ferry transfer over the Manambolo River.

Overnight at the hotel.

Day Description

Day 7- Tsingy of Bemaraha

Tsingy is the Malagasy word for "tiptoeing", and the almost impenetrable labyrinth of limestone needles justifies this name.

The canyons, gorges, untouched forests, lakes, and mangrove swamps of the reserve exhibit an astonishing richness of fauna and flora that has not been fully documented yet.

The rate of endemism is about 85%, with 47% being locally endemic.

The duration of the hike and the level of difficulty will be discussed and decided on-site.

Overnight stay at the same hotel.

Day Description

Day 8 - Bekopaka to Morondava

Travel Day of 200 km Off-Road

Departure after breakfast towards Morondava, first crossing the Manambolo River on the small ferry, then driving to Belo sur Tsiribihina.

Crossing the Tsiribihina River by ferry, and then passing through the Baobab Alley, just before sunset, a magical moment!

Continuing on to Morondava and overnight stay at the hotel.

Images

Day Description

Day 9 - Morondava Rest Day

After all those kilometers, you will enjoy a well-deserved rest day at the hotel.

Morondava is an endlessly relaxed coastal town with sandy streets and a gently decaying ambiance. There isn't much to do or see in the city itself, but nearby attractions include the famous Avenue of the Baobabs.

Images

Day Description

Day 10 - From Morondava to Manja

Travel day of 200 km off-road track

Belo sur Mer is the first stop after Morondava, a charming fishing village in Vezo, located about 80 km south of Morondava.

Visitors coming here will be greeted by a wonderful kilometer-long beach of bright white sand and amazingly transparent emerald green waters.

Afterwards, the journey continues south to the small town of Manja.

Manja is located within the Sakalava territory in the Menabe province. The town was the capital of a small kingdom in the nineteenth century.

Day Description

Day 11 - Drive to Ifaty

Day trip of 50 km off-road and 150 km on-road

Continue your journey south for this penultimate leg, taking you to the seaside resort of Ifaty, one of Madagascar's most beautiful beaches.

You will need to cross the Mangoky River on a local ferry, which can sometimes involve a long wait.

The route includes sandy tracks and then well-paved roads all the way to Ifaty. Enjoy the drive!

Images

Day Description

Day 12 – From Ifaty to Tulear and Domestic Flight

This final short leg of 35 km on the road runs along the sea, providing you with an unforgettable view.

You will arrive in Tulear before lunch and then take the flight back to the capital.

The domestic flight can also take place in the morning, with the flight times determining the day's schedule.

Return flight to Antananarivo and accommodation at Villa Sibylle.

Day Description

Day 13 – Return Flight or Extension Tour

If time allows, there are still plenty of options to enjoy this last day in Madagascar.

We will take you to the airport in time for your flight, which usually departs after midnight. You will appreciate the opportunity for a "Dayuse" at the hotel, where you can relax and prepare for your flight in peace.

Our Concept

Our motorcycle tours are personally tailored to your wishes and expectations, with prices calculated based on the final route and selected accommodations.

Madagascar's road network is very limited, but it showcases the essentials. National Road 7 is considered one of the most beautiful roads in the world.

The low density of paved roads has created an extraordinary network of routes.

As large as France and Belgium combined, every town, every village is connected by a stretch of road or path spanning several kilometers...

So yes, Madagascar is to motorcycling what Hawaii is to surfing: an absolute spot!

Our French-Malagasy team, composed of motorcycle guides and specialized mechanics, will share their passion for this country with you.
