Day Description	Images
-----------------	--------

Day 1: Nosy Be – Nosy Tany Kely – Russian Bay

At 7 am, our driver will pick you up from your hotel and take you to the port.

Upon arrival at the marina, you will be warmly welcomed and given a detailed briefing about the planned itinerary, the next destinations, and the onboard activities. The sailing trip towards Tanikely will start promptly before 8 am.

A one-hour crossing will take you to the legendary protected marine reserve of Tanikely. The exceptional environment is known for its diverse marine life.

In this stunning landscape, you can snorkel or kayak surrounded by colorful fish and sea turtles, setting the perfect tone for your exploration.

A delicious freshly prepared meal awaits you at lunchtime.

Afterwards, you will have plenty of time to relax or take a tour to the lighthouse.

Around 2 pm, the sailing trip continues as the Ange

Day 2: Russian Bay – Ankazoberavina – Barahamamay

Early in the morning, the captain sets sail towards Ankazoberavina Ecolodge.

The crossing only takes 30 minutes. Upon arrival, we offer you a diverse breakfast right at the Ecolodge. Enjoy the first hours of sunlight in a typical Madagascar setting.

Explore this paradise with a guide or choose to participate in a diving excursion (diving is not included in our offer).

Afterwards, a delicious lunch awaits you on board the Ange Bleu.

At 2:00 PM, the boat sets sail again for a 3-hour cruise to the next destination, Barahamamay. This small tributary winds its way through exotic mangroves and a primary forest. It's the perfect place to unwind and enjoy the rest of the day.

In the evening, another dinner awaits you on board the Ange Bleu.

Indulge in fresh cuisine under the open sky.

Day 3: Barahamamay – Kalakajoro

After a hearty breakfast, we set off to visit a traditional school in the small village, offering you an exclusive glimpse into life in Madagascar.

Donations of school supplies for the students are always welcome, allowing you to make a positive impact on the local community.

Following the visit, enjoy a graceful and fresh lunch on board the sailing ship. You can then opt to kayak along the mangrove forest before the Blue Maki sets sail again at 10 am.

Our next stop is Nosy Kalakajoro, the first island of the Radama Archipelago, with a 3-hour crossing. Relax on board with coffee and tea or settle into your cabin for the journey.

Nosy Kalakajoro boasts a unique landscape shaped by volcanoes, featuring steep relief and an old traditional Dhaus construction site. Immerse yourself in the extraordinary nature and beauty of Madagascar.

In the evening, savor a delicious dinner on board the ship and soak in the tranquility of the island

Day 4: Kalakajoro – Nosy Iranja – Barahamamay

In the early morning, we set off to the Nosy Iranja islands.

The journey takes about 4 hours.

The island is actually divided into two parts, separated by a white sandbank. Nosy Iranja is anchored at the northeastern tip of Madagascar.

The sandbank is surrounded by clear, turquoise water, providing a picturesque setting for photos and swims.

After anchoring, a trip to the lighthouse and a visit to the island are on the agenda.

Enjoy your stay in this paradise-like environment and go snorkeling or kayaking. Of course, you can also just relax on the beach and watch the sea.

Afterwards, we will prepare a delicious lunch on board for you.

At 4 pm, we set off on a 1-hour sailing tour back to Barahamamay.

Day 5: Barahamamay – Antsoa – Nosy Be

Embark on the last day of your sailing trip.

The Ange bleu sets sail early in the morning. In just 2 hours, you will arrive at the island of Antsoa.

This private island is known for its many free-roaming lemurs.

Feed the cute, Madagascar-typical animals and relax with a leisurely walk on white sandy beaches.

For lunch, another fresh meal awaits you with local delicacies.

At around 3 pm, the Ange bleu sets sail again and safely takes you back to Nosy Be.

At 5:30 pm, filled with experiences, you will reach the port of Nosy Be and be elegantly escorted back to your hotel by our driver.
